SONG RECITAL.

Miss Ida Coggeshall, of New York city, who has been giving song recitals at the several hotels on the Florida east coast this season, entertained a small but appreciative audience at the opera house Wednesday night. Miss Coggeshall rendered six songs of well known merit familiar to those musically inclined. She possesses a sweet yet powerful voice with in the mezzo-soprano range. Miss Daisy Brady very kindly rendered the accompaniments on the piano for Miss Coggeshall that night in her usual perfect style and acceptable manner. Miss Coggeshall has sung in some of the most prominent churches of Jacksonville and Asbury Park. The regular Wednesday evening hop followed the song recital.

FISH PULLED HIM OVERBOARD.

Mr. and Mrs. John Metz, of Michigan, are stopping in town for a few days. Saturday Mr. Metz speared a drum fish of about 40 lbs. from the railroad wharf that pulled him off the high place into the river, spraining his left ankle severely. However, he still held to the line and landed his big fish.

NOTED COWBOY ORATOR.

Gilbert Walden, the noted cowboy orator, impersonator and rifle shot, and Elma Laredo, the cowboy musician and rifle shot, gave their wild west entertainment in the opera house last night to a very small audience. The skill of these people in shooting and lariat throwing is wonderful, while their other varied features were very good. Space this morning will not permit our going into fuller description.
